No. F.1-1/2005-06/KVS(Estt.II)

Dated: 23/11/05

The Assistant Commissioner,
Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan,
Regional Office,
Dehradun

Sub: Clarification regarding regularization of intervening period.

Sir,

I am to refer to your letter No F.9-1/2005-06/KVS(DDR) dated 28.09.2005 on the subject mentioned above and to say that the clarification on the points raised by you is as follows:-

S.No.	Query	Reply
1	Whether intervening period of a teacher who was relieved on account of transfer on request/public interest within summer vacation and also resumed duty beyond 12/10 days (Joining time) during the same summer vacation may be regularized by treating him/her on duty.	a) Vacational staff transferred on request during vacation and relieved from old station during vacation may avail balance of vacation and report on the re-opening date at the new station without applying for leave. b) Vacational staff transferred in public interest and relieved during vacation may avail joining time and report for duty at the new station on the re-opening date or after expiry of joining time whichever is later. The position of journey time falling during vacation is deemed to have been availed as joining time.
2	Whether intervening period of a teacher of immunity category who was relieved on account of his/her transfer and later on his/her transfer order is modified on request with posting at the same station but other than the previous Vidyalaya may be regularized by treating him/her on duty.	2. For all kinds of irregular transfer, modified at request or otherwise and posted to the new place, such corrections may be treated as in public interest and the intervening period may be treated as extended joining time.
